RALLY INFORMATION

1 RALLY REGULATIONS

The rally is open to all veteran Motor vehicles, manufactured up to and including 31 December 1918 including cars, motorcycles and commercials.

Entrants must be current members of VCC NZ

All vehicles must display current WOF, Registration and for the National Veteran Rally - display a Vehicle Identity Certificate OR Statement of Authenticity.

A high and courteous standard of driving is expected. Any behaviour which could bring VCC NZ into disrepute may result in disqualification.

Entries close Friday 15th December 2023.

2 RALLY PACKAGE

The 2024 National Veteran Rally is being run in conjunction with the 70th anniversary Dunedin to Brighton Veteran Rally; an iconic Dunedin Festival event started in 1953. One entry fee covers both events. Add the informal BBQ run on the last day and we offer 3 easy days of veteran motoring in picturesque surroundings.

Separately organised, the Prince Henry tour will leave Dunedin on Monday 29th January for several days motoring in South Otago. Contact details for the Prince Henry tour information is noted in section 7 below.

3 RALLY HQ

The Rally HQ will be the Edgar Sports Centre in Portsmouth Drive Dunedin. There is plenty of on-site car parking and a modern function centre with excellent harbour views.

It is approximately 3 km from the Dunedin CBD and with a range of accommodation options on Otago Peninsula, in St Kilda and St Clair and around the CBD

4 RALLY PROGRAMME

Thursday 25th January – Registration at the Edgar Centre from 5.30pm. The evening will include our welcome, briefing, noggin and natter and complimentary light refreshments.

Friday 26th January – National Veteran Rally starting at Sunnyvale Sports Centre carpark 9 km from the Edgar centre and with the route focussed on the Taieri Plains. Lunch and field tests will be at the Outram Domain. A casual afternoon run returning to Dunedin visiting some places of interest enroute is being arranged.

Friday 26th – Dinner at the Edgar Centre

Saturday 27th January – Brighton Run starting in Dunedin's Octagon (CBD) with an 18km run over an undulating coastal route to Brighton beach. An optional extension of 17km (34km return) from Brighton to Taieri Mouth is offered for faster vehicles. Lunch and field tests will be at the Brighton Domain.

Saturday 27th January - Prize Giving Dinner at the Edgar Centre.

Sunday 28th January – An informal run to the home of Margaret and Travis Michelle on the Taieri Plain 20km from the Edgar Centre for a BBQ picnic lunch. Veteran vehicles encouraged but optional.
